Lawns and Relationships

I have a small patch of grass in my back yard. When we first moved into our home I thought even I can take care of that small of a lawn. Foolish of me. Some people love to putter around the yard trimming bushes, planting flowers, and trimming the lush green grass. I like rocks. Rocks are low maintenance requiring an occasional resupply or a light raking. Side note, when I tell my Midwest friends and family that I was out raking the rocks they give me the strangest look. This is followed by a telling glance at another family member that seems to be saying; “I think Ron has been in the sun too long!” Anyway, you have picked up on the fact that I am not very good at yard work. Well, after enduring 4 years of my feeble attempt to care for it, my small patch of grass surrendered and let the invading weeds occupy my lawn. At first it was a hostile takeover by the weeds, but in the end my grass just laughed at the weeds and said; “Good luck!”

Humiliated at the site of where I once had grass I reached out to an expert. He graciously came over to my house to survey the damage. Being very kind he said; “It’s not as bad as you think. Trim it up a bit and then put this fertilizer on. Your grass simply needs the right nutrients and will come right back.” Grateful and somewhat skeptical I trimmed up the weeds and applied the fertilizer. The next day I went out back and... nothing had changed. I am not a patient person. Within a week the weeds were retreating and the grass was greening up. After two weeks the entire patch was green and lush once again! Today my small patch of grass looks the best it has since we moved in. It just needed the right nutrients!

“Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.” (Ephesians 4:31-32)

Do we want to get rid of the weeds of bitterness, anger, slander and the hurt that we inflict on one another? Then we need to sow the right nutrients – kindness, compassion, and forgiveness. Imagine with me, as hard as it may seem, if our elected leaders would show some kindness, compassion, and forgiveness to one another. They could stand by their principles, but I suspect much more would be accomplished. Imagine what would happen in your relationships if you sowed these key nutrients. The neighbor you are at war with or the family member you haven’t spoken to in years.

You will be amazed at what can happen if the right nutrients are given to the lawn and to our relationships.

Pastor Ron

The Gospel According to Luke

and

The Gospel According to Mark

Each of these 13-week studies will cover the entire book of one of the Gospels, with a focus on the book's background, message, and application to our lives. Participants can purchase a best-selling study guide/workbook for the class and home study, which includes the complete text of the Gospel, the Life Application Bible commentary and study notes for the scripture, as well as questions leading us deeper into our understanding of Jesus.

If you are interested in gaining a deeper knowledge of scripture, one of these classes will be perfect for you. The classes will meet each Sunday morning in the Conference Room beginning September 10, and will be taught by Dr. Barry Ritchie. See below to decide which class time is the best fit for your Sunday morning worship schedule. So that we can get an accurate count, please let Barry know which class you'll be attending by contacting him either by phone at (480) 839-1382 (please leave a message if there's no answer) or send him an email at britchie11@juno.com. See you there!

At 8:40 AM each Sunday morning: The Gospel According to Luke

The Gospel of Luke was intended to spread and defend the Good News about Jesus to the entire world. Written to people unfamiliar with the Jewish background of Jesus and the apostles, this Gospel shows Jesus is the Savior of all humanity. Luke helps us better communicate not only to each other, but also to an unbelieving and sometimes hostile world, the truth that Jesus truly came to reach everyone: rich and poor, Jew and Gentile, devout and unreligious... and you and me.

At 10:10 AM each Sunday morning: The Gospel According to Mark

The Gospel of Mark breathlessly gives the eyewitness remembrances of those who lived with, worked alongside, and witnessed who Jesus was. Likely the first written Gospel and based on Peter's recollections, the Gospel of Mark tells with great urgency how Jesus came with the power of God to call the lost, heal the sick, and to save the world from sin and death.

Sunday Volunteer Sign-up Process

Our Sunday morning volunteer positions are scheduled through Planning Center. We are using a tool in Planning Center called Sign-up-Sheets. Rather than the office scheduling you, now you will be able to choose which Sundays/service you'd like to serve.

At the beginning of each month you will receive an email asking you to select which Sundays you would like to serve. These dates will be saved in your Planning Center account and you'll receive reminder emails as the date approaches.

We know that some of our married couples that use Planning Center share the same email address. If you do, here's what we need ONE of you to do: (One of you may keep your current password, but the other needs to create a new one). Enter the link to get to the sign-in page of Planning Center at <https://accounts.planningcenteronline.com>. Type in your email address and click the checkmark button. Remember, if you share an email address with another Planning Center user, you must keep track of which account you're accessing when you are signing up or making changes to your schedule.

Another hint: any time you're in Planning Center you can identify the account by looking at the top right of your browser window. Thank you for your patience as we continue to learn this software. Please call Susan Myres with questions, 480-895-6782.

Altar Guild

If you would like to serve on Altar Guild and have questions, please contact Linda Peiffer at 480-993-6083 or Joan Lange, 602-405-8910.

Fellowship

Join us for coffee and donuts in-between services on the patio. It's a great opportunity to meet new people and to sign up and serve.

As you're cleaning closets this summer, remember our Rummage Sale, October 20th and 21st. Collection days are October 17 – 19. Please save hangers as we will be hanging most of the clothes.

With love and prayers,
May God who formed your being,
Who knit you together in your mother's womb,
Who gave you the breath of life,
Renew you this day and give you hope
To sustain you.
May this prayer shawl be a sign of Christ's
Healing presence.
May it warm you when you are weary;
May it surround you with comfort to ease
Your suffering;
May it encircle you with caring when you
Are in pain.
Wear this prayer shawl and remember
Jesus loves you.

Missions

Military Mission

We had a great start to our new mission. The June Organizational meeting was attended by 17 interested members. Our focus and mission is to assist military members and their families with personal concerns. We will establish two data bases: organizations and individuals to help address the Veterans concerns and Veterans that request assistance. We will then coordinate a meeting between them to help solve their concerns. Meetings will be held the 1st Thursday of the month at 1900 Hours (7pm) at The Pathway Center. Contact Herman Swanson at email: herm1957hood@gmail.com or 253-820-2840 for additional information.

We are always willing to pick up any donated items. During the month of August, you can call Barb Knight at 480-895-7993 or Barb Bade at 480-629-8867 any time to make arrangements.
