Worshiping

Orientation – Disorientation - Reorientation

For as far back as I can remember, whenever I was feeling the pressure of life, I have turned to the Psalms. There is something so raw about the emotions that are expressed in those ancient hymns. Recently, I was introduced to a pattern in some of the Psalms – Orientation, Disorientation, and then Reorientation.

If we take a look at Psalm 142, David begins with David having the right orientation.

“I cry aloud to the Lord;
I lift up my voice to the Lord for mercy.

I pour out before him my complaint;
before him I tell my trouble.

When my spirit grows faint within me,
it is you who watch over my way”

When he is in trouble, he knows who to turn to, the Lord. This is where you and I would start out. Something happens in life that brings us down and we go to the Lord. We lift up a prayer asking for his help. We have the right orientation.

Then when we don't find any relief, when the problem isn't solved, and our health isn't restored, the relationship falls further apart. Well, now we are thrown for a loop. I thought God answers prayers? I thought he was waiting to lend a hand and make things better, now what? We become disoriented and start looking to our own ability or to those around us, desperately trying to make sense out of life. David wrote Psalm 142 while he was hiding in a cave from King Saul who was trying to kill him. Kill him? Wait - the prophet said that David would be king, so he cannot die. What is going on? Disorientation.

“Look and see, there is no one at my right hand;
no one is concerned for me.

I have no refuge;
no one cares for my life.”

David has nowhere to turn and he feels all alone; “no one cares for my life.” Oh, how many times have you felt like it was you against the world? You were in this all alone; no one really cares what is happening in your life.

Although it's only one verse later that David changes his tone, you can be sure it was not that quick. Who knows how long he lingered in a state of disorientation, but at some point he becomes reoriented.

“I cry to you, Lord;
I say, “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.”

David remembers that the Lord is his refuge. He does care for David even when it doesn't feel like he does. David is reoriented and put back in line putting his trust in his God. The same will happen for us. No, it doesn't happen in a matter of moments and sometimes not even in a matter of days. Yet, the promises of God are still true and real. He will never leave us or forsake us. He is our refuge and strength and in time we get reoriented and once again see God for the loving father that He is.

Maybe this is why whenever I run into a rough spot I turn to the Psalms. They can express my frustration, fear and even anger. Yet, they always bring me back to my refuge, my strength, and my fortress – my God. I pray they do the same for you.

In Christ,

Small Group Bible Studies

Adult Forum - Led by Pastor Harold Teuscher

The class on "Peter & Paul" continues throughout JULY. These two key pillars of Early Christianity and Western Civilization were extremely important in the development of Christianity. The epic TV miniseries brings to life the precarious existence of the early church. We will follow along as we read our Bibles and see the importance of the many events portrayed by the book of Acts. Please join us at 8:40am each Sunday as we see the hand of God in the spread of His Gospel.

The video will help us see the violent opposition from without and the constant turmoil from within the church. These two key leaders emerge as they struggle to keep the faith alive and spread the news not only to the Jewish church but also include the Gentiles in God's Good News of salvation. This dramatic video will follow these leaders for three decades. Included is the stoning of Stephen (first martyr of the church), Paul's vision of the risen Christ on the road to Damascus, the encounter of the first Ecumenical Council in Jerusalem, Paul's missionary journeys, clashes over Jewish law, and Peter's decision to follow Paul's courageous footsteps. It ends with the beheading of Paul and Peter's crucifixion under the persecution of Emperor Nero in 64 a.d. We will supplement the video with material from the writings of Paul Maier and other authors.

The Perfect Place

The Perfect Place is a nonprofit community service organization dependent in part on donations and volunteers. In May we were honored to receive a donation of $3,000.00 from Hidden Treasures at 1610 Alma School Road in Chandler. Hidden Treasures is a resale shop whose profits are donated to a wide variety of community service organizations. It was founded by four Lutheran churches; Holy Trinity, Mountain View, Light of Christ and Desert Cross with a goal of enriching the lives of persons who are restricted and in some cases immobile.

We thank Hidden Treasures and their founding Lutheran Churches. Their generous donation will be enriching our Scholarship Program, allowing us to offer our Caregivers a free session for their Loved Ones as they attend a "Caregiver Roundtable".....a time for fellowship, sharing and gleaning support from professionals in the valley. Often Caregivers forego attending support sessions because of additional cost and care needed for their Loved Ones.

The Perfect Place is located on the campus of Risen Savior Lutheran Church in Sun Lakes. We are a nonprofit faith based adult care center. Our volunteers are knowledgeable of Alzheimer's, dementia, developmental disabilities, and various adult neurological challenges. Most of us have had a loved one for which we were a caregiver. We enjoy what we do.

If you believe your family or caregiver would benefit from this service, contact Eileen Curran or Judy Waltersdorf at The Perfect Place.

Contributions from service organizations and personal donations to our scholarship fund allow us to provide financial assistance. Ask for a receipt. We are a 501c3.

Missions

Piece Maker Quilters

The quilters are thrilled that we continue to have between 10 – 13 members every week. That makes it possible to finish eight to twelve quilts a week including baby quilts.

Some of our members have shown an interest in making “prayer shawls”. We are encouraging church members to contribute money or yarn; the yarn is called Lion’s Brand, Homespun, 3 skein, preferably dark colors. The hospital patients are very thankful when they receive one.

We also have members that are making layettes and little girl’s dresses that use a lot of bias tape, so if you could donate we would appreciate it.

We meet every Wednesday all year long at 1:00pm – 4:00pm. Come see us and get acquainted. Contact Marie Kiehl at 480-883-0842.

LCEF

StewardAccount, MyAccount: Good Combo for College Students

Students preparing for the college experience may need lessons in time and money management. Consider opening a Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF) StewardAccount, which can be monitored via MyAccount, LCEF’s online service.

The StewardAccount is an interest-bearing investment that can be accessed via checks, a Visa Debit Card or electronic funds transfers. MyAccount makes it easy to view activity and make payments from the StewardAccount. And by signing up for electronic statements, moving between home and school doesn’t create a problem.

Lutheran Women’s Missionary League (LWML)

Yesterday, Today and Forever, based on Hebrews 13:8, was the theme for the 70th Anniversary LWML Convention of the Pacific Southwest District (PSD) held at historic St John’s Lutheran Church in Orange, California. LWML members and guests numbering 315 from all over southern California, Arizona and southern Nevada were in attendance for the three-day event. For the 2016 - 2018 Biennium a mission goal of $150,000 was adopted. Your prayerfully given Mites on Mite Sunday and at general meetings will contribute to this mission goal. LWML sisters and brothers gathered to praise God for 70 years of grace and blessings to and through the PSD. Watch for the post-convention Women of the Word (WOW) publication for additional details. Like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/psdlwml.

The convention ingathering is “CAN” Hunger to benefit the Food Bank of Orange County. Risen Savior’s convention attendees brought several items for the ingathering. However, to continue this ingathering project, the group is asking for donations during the months of July and August of bottled water which will be distributed where needed in the valley. You may place your donations of bottled water on a table in the hall leading to the Fellowship hall. Thank you for your much needed donations.

There will not be a meeting the month of July.
